

Tentative Programme.

(ADBI-ITD)

(Alternative Funding and Fiscal Management Policy in Meeting the SDG 2030 Goals)

Alternative Funding and Fiscal Management Policies for Development Finance

Objective: Financing infrastructure investment by returning spillover tax revenues: Promoting ITD-ADBI joint workshop)

Resource Speakers: Prof. Naoyuki Yoshino (ADBI) and, Umid Abidhadjaev

30 September 2018 (Day 1)	Making the Case for Alternative Funding for Public Goods and the Role of Public Money	Note
09.15 - 09.30	Opening Remark.
09.30 - 09.35	Group photo
10.00 - 12.00	How alternative funding can be a source of finance for Asia-Pacific?
	• Concept note on spillover effects
	• Injection of spillover tax revenues into infrastructure projects
12.00 - 13.30	Lunch break
13.30 - 14.30	Infrastructure effectiveness measured by tax revenues and GDPs
14.30 - 15.30	Showcasing real and potential applications in APAC region
15.30 - 16.00	Coffee Break
16.00 - 17.30	Country infrastructure projects
1 October 2018 (Day 2)	Customising Funding Strategies for Different Stakeholder under PPP
09.00 - 12.00	Strategies and role for public sector in funding infrastructure investment
	(Ministry of Finance, Ministry of Development, Ministry of Infrastructure etc.)
12.00 - 13.30	Lunch Break
13.30 - 15.00	Strategies for Government Pension Funds and Its Asset Management
15.00 - 15.30	Coffee Break
15.30 - 17.00	Strategies and Role for Private Investors for infrastructure investment
	(Insurance companies, banks etc.)	